Paul Jones is visiting with E. N. Parr.

Miss Della Cook left for San Miguel Friday morning.

Mr. E. Janes visited friends in San Francisco last week.

Mr. W. L. Rockwell returned to San Juan Thursday P. M.

Mrs. Rose Briggs returned from San Francisco on Thursday.

W. W. Turney returned from a trip to San Francisco Friday.

Frank Edwards went to San Francisco Tuesday morning.

Miss Lillian Mason went to San Francisco Friday on a visit for a few days.

C. H. Whitman spent a few days in San Francisco during the past week.

A foot-race on south Central avenue last evening caused considerable excitement.

J. N. Preston and wife returned from an extended visit to Pacific Grove last week.

The water pipes have been laid from the Railroad tanks to the park and the park can now be irrigated.

Miss Alda Swope returned from a visit with friends at Chico, Marysville and other points north last week.

Dr. Hartland of San Francisco purchased the Herndon Keith property on Hamilton avenue a short time since.

C. P. Alden who has been working the ranch of C. F. Cramer moved to Alameda with his family Wednesday.

Several trains from the Santa Cruz mountains the first of the week were laden with snow to the depth of about two inches.

Roy Cunningham with his mother and sister left for their old home in Arlington Oregon the 27th. They will remain there for some time.

A farewell party was given the 25th inst. in honor of Ed Evans in view of his departure with his mother to Los Angeles the following morning.

We have noticed no signs, "Keep off the grass" in our new park yet. The VISITOR stands ready to furnish the printing when the notices are needed.

J. B. Ashley, a gentleman from Minnesota, has purchased four acres from A. Shearer and will put up a residence building on the property in a short time.

For job carpenter work of every description call on Jas. S. Fay located on Central avenue opp. VISITOR office. Will also give estimates and furnish plans on buildings.

Chris Killias returned to Campbell the first of the week having spent several weeks in San Francisco under medical treatment. He has almost entirely recovered from his injury.

The children about town should be well instructed against damaging the shade trees along the walks. A few of the ends of the limbs have already been broken off the trees are easily injured while young.

A number of our citizens have contributed liberally to the railroad park. A. G. Williams acting as chairman of the park committee deserves special credit for time spent in securing trees, directing in the work of planting etc.

A professional pruner when informed that the ladders he was purchasing recently, for one of our leading fruit growers were still better than any before put up replied, "I never saw any Blaine ladders yet that were not good."

The friends of Orvil Snyder were pained to hear of his death at Hollister on last Monday week. He had been sick less than a week with pneumonia but owing to his delicate constitution the disease made rapid progress and he passed away in only a few days.

It is undoubtedly a fact that we need a road through to Hamilton avenue from the central part of town as much as any other one thing. If we can but secure the assistance of Dr. Hartland who recently purchased the Keith property the problem will be easily solved.

A Kindergarten is expected to be started here soon, quite a number of subscriptions have been promised from people who have no small children to send as well as those that have which shows there is much interest manifested. This is a good move in the right direction.

Mr. William Kimbraugh who has been staying at Mr. Westlakes for some time left for his home in Columbia Mo. Friday. He came out here for his health and has been much benefited. His ticket was purchased of our local ticket agent C. Berry, through to Kansas City.

Constable Preston was called up about midnight on Thursday night to quell a disturbance at the south end of town a resident of the locality while under the influence of liquor having driven his family out of the house. The result of the officer's appearance was an arrest, a ride to Santa Clara, and the assessment of ten dollars fine the next morning in Justice Campbell's court.

A very pleasant union meeting of the Campbell Y. P. S. C. E. and Epworth League took place at the M. E. church last Sunday evening. The meeting was led by J. F. Duncan the service consisting of songs, scriptural reference etc. The music was assisted by the Epworth League orchestra. Following this service a union service of the congregations of the two church societies of Campbell was held the sermon being delivered by Rev. Wm. Windsor.

A snow storm is quite a rare thing in Campbell but there was something of that nature here on last Tuesday and, strange to say, its limits were confined to the immediate vicinity of the Willett building. The first indication of its approach was the appearance of a small boy coming from the direction of the railroad carrying a man—or what he probably meant to resemble a man—made out of snow gathered from a north-bound freight train. The storm began when he reached the corner opposite the bank and, began with the assistance of several confederates, to break the man in pieces and pelt the pedestrians who happened to travel that way. Though lasting but a few minutes the storm was quite severe and one man, at least, was scattered promiscuously about the street—the snow man.

The Railroad Park.

In an issue of some weeks since we stated that the proposition to lay out a railroad park between Campbell avenue and the depot was a thing of the past. This statement was founded on the report of the park committee at a citizen's meeting about that time in which the decision of the railroad company against taking care of the park after the first year was given, the report bringing out a discussion favoring the dropping of the project under those conditions. The committee were not satisfied to let it drop altogether, however, but secured the promise of a portion of the money pledged by the citizens to cover the expense of planting out such trees and shrubbery as would thrive without requiring careful attention. The result is that we now have the beginning of what will some day be a beautiful little park pleasure grounds.

Literary Entertainment.

The literary entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Friday evening February 28th was largely attended. After a short literary and musical program the audience was entertained by a very spirited debate on the subject "Resolved that the franchise should not be extended to women." C. W. Davison, D. H. Coates and F. A. Blaine spoke on the affirmative and A. C. Ross, J. F. Duncan and Worthin Williams on the negative. The judges were John Evans, E. E. White and C. Berry. The decision was in favor of the negative.

Obituary.

DIED—At Campbell, March 2, 1896, George McGee, aged 20 years and 6 months.

The deceased was a native of this county; born and brought up in San Jose. About three years since he had an attack of the grip which left his lungs in a weak condition, resulting in consumption. Last summer the family bought a lot in the Rucker addition and built them a home, thinking that the change might benefit George, but he was too far gone for any improvement and gradually failed as the days went by. He leaves a mother, sister and brother to mourn his loss. The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon and were quite largely attended. The interment took place in the family lot at Oak Hill cemetery.

Notice to the Public.

I am now prepared to do all kinds of wagon, carriage and buggy work at prices to suit the times. One-horse fruit trucks at $55.00; spring wagons $60.00 and upwards. All wheels boiled in linseed oil. Every vehicle guaranteed for one year. Come and see my work.

The Retiring Committee.

The Town Committee which is soon to retire from office has worked faithfully for the welfare of the community. Considering the power with which such a committee is invested and the obstacles in the way of its carrying out any desirable improvement our committee has done exceedingly well. The improvement to our streets—grading, graveling walks, planting shade trees etc.—was all due to the action of this committee or to the inspiration and encouragement of its members. The equipment for fire protection—ladders, buckets and movable tank—was secured by the efforts of the committee and the improvement of the railroad park has been done under its direction. The work accomplished by this committee as foundation work gives the new committee something to build upon and with the foundation well laid other and perhaps greater improvements will be possible during the coming year.

Union Veteran's Association.

On last Thursday afternoon an association composed of the old soldiers of Campbell with their wives to be known as the Union Veteran's Association of Campbell was organized at Y. M. C. A. hall. The organization is purely a social one and while only old soldiers and their wives can become members their sons and daughters will also join them in their social gatherings. The officers elected were as follows: President, Col. S. F. Cooper; Vice-President, Mrs. D. H. Coats; Secretary W. W. Turney.

Another Literary Entertainment.

The young peoples societies of Campbell are preparing for another literary entertainment and debate and a program is being arranged which will include some novel and interesting features. The date has not been definitely decided upon but it will be some time in the near future.

For storage of any discription apply to Campbell Fruit Growers Union. Fire proof warehouse. Terms reasonable.

THE VISITOR AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

That the VISITOR has great value as an advertising medium will not be questioned by those who know the class of people among whom it circulates. The citizens of Campbell and the country tributary thereto are very widely known as the most prosperous and enterprising people of the banner county of the State. They are a thrifty people, not given to extravagance, but as a rule able to buy and pay for what they need. The merchants who secure their trade get their best customers. The VISITOR, being the only local paper, is by far the best means of reaching and securing their trade and no where will your advertising bring you better returns for the money invested. Write for rates to the CAMPBELL WEEKLY VISITOR, Campbell, Cal.

THE Saratoga Item edited by Claud Pollard has branched out into a very neat appearing seven column sheet increasing its size some sixteen times or more.

THE Editor of the Palo Alto Times shows great enterprise in giving the people of that town a daily paper. This is at present, we believe, the only daily in the county published outside of San Jose.

THE weather of the past week has been cool and rainy. While the farmers rejoice in the rain, grave fears have been entertained of damage from frost, the snow clad mountains making it all the more probable. The fruit has not been injured as yet to any great extent, and there seems a good show of the cold weather passing without leaving serious results.

There is no excuse for young men loafing about the streets and stores. If a young man cannot find employment he can at least read. Good books are a man's best friend and he who spends his time reading such will certainly not have wasted it. A young man who is seen continually loafing is soon looked upon as an idler and finds himself thought of and spoken of in the same manner as the lowest class of degraded men are thought and spoken of. Don't loaf. If you can't find work, don't stand out on the sidewalk and make a public nuisance and eyesore out of yourself.—S. C. Journal.

THE DOG NUISANCE.

Several of our citizens think the arraignment of the dog poisoners in our last issue a little severe. We believe, however, if the thing is looked into properly it will not be so considered. There are numerous instances on record where an intelligent dog has made itself most valuable in caring for property and even to saving life. It is throwing out poison indiscriminately which may result in poisoning a really valuable animal that is to be condemned and we believe this has been done about Campbell. There is, however, no excuse for residents keeping worthless or vicious dogs and any having such should dispose of them for the good of the community without any further persuasion.

KEEPS IN MARBLES.

Contributed.

Can any one show a real difference between this game and ordinary gambling? Is not any game gambling where stakes are used, whether coins or marbles or drinks or cigars? Keeps is played for fun but in the same sense, so are most gambling games. It is the exception, when it becomes a trade, a business.

The little match lights the big fire. Taking without leave small things may make a boy a burglar. Small stories grow into perjuries. A marble lost or won by a boy excites much the same feelings, as something more valuable later on. One leads to the other.

Does it commend our town this game on its streets?

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

The members of the W. C. T. U. of Campbell cordially invite a perusal of this column, the matter for which is furnished by members of the society.

In a recent address Judge Kimball of the Washington, D. C., Police Court stated that for the fiscal year 1895, the United States Government issued 228,000 liquor licenses, or one for each 228 people. Besides these is an unknown number unlicensed.—National W. C. T. U. Bulletin.

Some of the insurance companies doing business in Indiana have declined to issue policies on saloon property unless the saloon-keeper can prove himself to be a responsible party. The reason given is fear that the liquor dealer forced out of business by the new law may commit arson to get the insurance. The wise insurer does well not to assume the risk.

Drinking and gambling, it is feared, are likely to become as great curses in Palestine as in England. In a village of Scripture fame a low drinking and gambling den has lately been opened in the sookh, with disastrous effects on the villagers. Several men have taken to drinking, one has become notorious as a wife-beater, and several others have gambled away money, olives and clothes.—London Christian.

On one of the New Hebrides, the evils arising from the use of kava, an intoxicating drink from the root of a shrub of that name, were pointed out to the natives, and they were advised to extirpate the plant. At first there was considerable demur; but at last the people rose as one man, and kava was doomed. They enacted and promptly executed a prohibitory law. Are Christian people behind them in this respect?—Church at Home and Abroad.

The body of a man known as Felix was found on the roadside near Asbury Park yesterday. He was on a spree Monday night, and probably started for home. It is thought he lay down to sleep and died from the cold and exposure.

James McCarthy was found frozen to death beside the railroad track near Manor, Long Island, yesterday. It is believed he was drunk.—Morning Advertiser.

This incident is sent to us by a railroad surgeon and vouched for as correct. An engineer who has been on the road twenty years was laid up with influenza two years ago, and since then has drank spirits to excess at intervals, especially at night. The superintendent paid no attention to this and permitted him to go on his usual daily runs. One day he came in to the end of his route very much intoxicated, ran up to the yard, and left his engine in the proper place, then staggered back towards the depot muttering. The train he brought in went on, when suddenly he sprang on a waiting engine and started down the road after the train. The yard-master conceived this to be a drunken freak, and wired to turn the switch off from the main line at a distant station. This was done just in time to avert dashing into the rear of a passenger train. The engine was ditched, and the engineer escaped unhurt and was taken to an asylum with acute mania, where he is still confined. A very serious accident was narrowly averted and the stupidity of permitting an inebriate engineer to run a train was literally criminality of the most flagrant type.—Journal of Industry.
